EXTERNAL RESOURCES

The below is not intended to be an exhaustive list of all available resources; rather it is a useful starting point for those needing more support or information.

Lifeline: Lifeline is a national charity providing all Australians experiencing a personal crisis with access to 24 hour crisis support and suicide prevention services.

- Website: www.lifeline.org.au
- Phone: 13 11 14 (available 24 hours)

Beyond Blue: Beyond Blue is working to reduce the impact of depression and anxiety in the community by raising awareness and understanding, empowering people to seek help, and supporting recovery, management and resilience. They have a range of LGBTI resources and are equipped to provide support to LGBTI people.

- Website: www.beyondblue.org.au
- Phone: 1300 22 4636

Relationships Australia: Relationships Australia is a leading provider of relationship support services for individuals, families and communities, aiming to support all people in Australia to achieve positive and respectful relationships. Their services are for all members of the community, regardless of religious belief, age, gender, sexual orientation, lifestyle choice, cultural background or economic circumstances.

- Website: www.relationships.org.au
- Phone: 1300 364 277

National LGBTI Health Alliance: The National LGBTI Health Alliance is a coalition of organisations from across Australia which provide health-related programs, services and research targeting LGBTI and other sexuality, sex and gender diverse people.
